Inspired by the 17th century ROCOCO style, Rococo style furniture on the basis of Baroque furniture further combines beautiful artistic modeling and functional comfort effect skillfully together, focusing on decoration, and with obvious hedonistic color. These characteristics are most vividly reflected in the 1919 cigar chair.

The Eames Lounge Chair is part of the permanent collections of the Museum of Modern Art and the Art Institute of Chicago

LC3 chair by Master Le Corbusier Jobs brought it with him to every press conference
The LC3 sofa is not only one of the representatives of modern art, but also Jobs's favorite choice.
